

Call to submit quotations for Designing the Reports and Compendium for the FNHW National Conclave 2024 for DAY-NRLM

About ROSHNI-CWCSA:

ROSHNI-Centre of Women Collectives led Social Action, Lady Irwin College, New Delhi (<http://www.roshni-cwcsa.co.in>) has been set up to technically support the Deendayal Antyodaya Yojana-National Rural Livelihoods Mission (DAY-NRLM), Ministry of Rural Development, Government of India, on layering FNHW and gender interventions. The Centre supports scale-up based on lessons from available models such as Swabhimaan, creating a pool of master trainers from women SHG institutions, creating, and making accessible a knowledge repository on women collectives, undertaking research, and policy advocacy for evidence-based implementation strategies. The Centre aims to provide training and capacity-building support to scale-up interventions across States. The Centre also aims to document best practices with scalability, and stories of transformative change and undertake evidence-based policy advocacy on high-impact implementation strategies.

Evidence from interventions targeting behaviour change in women has indicated the need to engage familial decision-makers and cultural influencers; men, mothers-in-law, and influential community/ traditional leaders to create a conducive environment for the adoption of recommended behaviors. Learning from DAY-NRLM's FNHW pilot Swabhimaan, launched in 2016 as a five-year initiative across three states in India – Bihar, Chhattisgarh, and Odisha, to improve the nutrition outcomes of women and adolescent girls, has brought up a specific need to engage men. Swabhimaan's mid-line evaluation results showed that while women's knowledge of FNHW behaviours was improving, indicators dependent on their decision-making within the household saw little change.

Support of a technical agency is required to design the Reports and Compendium for the FNHW National Conclave 2024 for DAY-NRLM, Ministry of Rural Development.

These materials will support the ongoing work on FNHW integration within DAY-NRLM and promote to enhance the visibility of the programme.

Proposals are invited from individuals and agencies that possess relevant experience in designing the report and compendium on themes of Food, Nutrition, Health, and WASH particularly for government departments and agencies on social development themes.
